No they crossed the one Ecoli and selected Entero.I did not report Ecoli since I did not want charge for one that was not selected. If you want me revise I can add on 02A My technician misread the COC and ran as Ecoli instead of Ecoli. Do you want us to delete and you resample or would you like us to report Ecoli, Thanks

I see it. Which field ID was it? You said 2A, but it looks like both e. coli and entero were requested. So was the entero just not run?

Thanks, Kara

I don't think I got it. I did get a second email with that report number in the subject, but it actually just had the chain of custody attached.

Can you resend please?

Hey,

I just noticed that I think you were asking a question in the forwarded message about running the wrong test. Did I ever respond to this?

Thanks,

Kara
