Hi Kara,

I'm so sorry about the mix up. Yes, there should be 3 bottles with the label G1SD0111 and have a sample time of 10:45. There should be one bottle each for E. coli, entero, and fecal analysis. There should also be 3 bottles for G1SD0110 with a sample time of 10:20.

Please let me know if you have any other questions or concerns, and thank you!

Miranda

Hi Miranda,

The samples dropped off at Sanders yesterday had 5 bottles with a sampling time of 10:20 and 1 bottle with a sampling time of 10:45. The WIN labels indicating the sampling locations were clearly labeled, but can you confirm that the G1SD0111 bottles with a sampling time of 10:20 should have been 10:45?

Thank you!

Kara

The tech said she found number preprinted on label even though time didn't match she matched by that and ran. Thanks

Hi Katie,

I was forwarded this email this morning. Sorry I wasn't able to respond yesterday, but the DEP-overflowmicro email wasn't included in your original message.

Did you guys just not run those two sites?

Thanks,

Kara

Good Morning Kara

I got this email from Katie Sanders. I didn't see the micro-overflow email address so I am not sure if you had it.

Thanks,
Carina

We got samples in from your team but they mislabeled and we cannot distinguish the sites apart. The one in question is the 10:20 has 5 bottles instead 3 and the 10:45 only had one bottle. Not enough for all analysis. NO locations on bottles only date time Please let us know how you want proceed. Thanks
