Cindy,

See below; info needs as the basis of our conference call next week.

Give me please a few days/times next week when we 3 (you, me, Denise) might talk.

Don - Why so long when it was due January? The intent was that we see how the data were coming together so we could influence how it was put together, if need be (e.g., ask questions, request fields of information be added if necessary). Will we have the time to do so if this goes another month? I would prefer to see something sooner that we could ask about - we aren't looking for the draft of final at this point or all data sources if not yet available.
