

■ FIGURE 13. A plan view of the reconnected hydrologic network in the Peace Creek watershed, with restoration features (shown in dark green) that provide treatment and infiltration in the headwaters/Ridge area of the watershed, and an interconnected series of wetlands that provide storage and conveyance in the middle and lower reaches/Polk Uplands area. Source: PBS&J