DEP employee injured at work should...

- 1. Report the injury to his or her supervisor immediately.
- 2. Report the injury to AmeriSys if medical attention is needed
- 3. The AmeriSys triage nurse will complete ask question about the incident and give a case number. The injured employee will then be advised of the appropriate medical provider/facility for treatment.

IN CASE OF AN EMERGENCY, the injured employee should seek immediate attention by calling 911. The employee or co-worker should then notify his or her supervisor.

All work-related injuries or illnesses are to be reported to AmeriSys at 1-800-455-2079. If possible, the employee is to be present for the call so their injuries may be triaged and the appropriate medical care provided.

For "life threatening" emergencies call 911 to get immediate medical care for the injured employee. Then call AmeriSys at 1-800-455-2079 to report the incident and call the employee's Supervisor.

When reporting incidents please provide the following code.
