

Sutton, Kaitlyn

From: Earl Clay <earleclay@aol.com>
Sent: Wednesday, November 20, 2019 7:19 PM
To: Sutton, Kaitlyn
Subject: Algae Bloom concern associated with Florida waters.

I am not sure. If, climate change is causing the increase in algae in Florida waters. We need to continue studying the affected waters in Florida and try to come up with corrective measures. Climate change is heating are waters and it appears Maine lobsters are moving further north towards Canadian waters. A problem exist here in Florida and elsewhere. Good luck!

Thank you.

Sent from my iPad