

Sutton, Kaitlyn

From: Sonia Foster <soniawtcrn@gmail.com>
Sent: Thursday, November 21, 2019 12:15 AM
To: Sutton, Kaitlyn
Subject: Algae Blooms

I find it interesting that there is approximately a two week period that the water utilities sent a notice we might have a different taste to the water because it's being treated and will have higher chlorine content. Is that coincidentally done to pass the inspection period before EPA testing.

If so will that generate a temporary condition to acquire a better measurement. If so I urge that disclosure in their reporting.

Thank you for protecting Us from these conditions.

Sonia Foster

Sent from my iPhone