

WBID 35A - POND CREEK IN MCCLOUD BAY

The map displays the watershed for WBID 35A, which is shaded in pink and outlined with a thick black and yellow dashed line. The central feature is McCloud Bay. To the north, Faircloth Lakes and Spring Branch are visible. To the west, Juniper Creek and Painter Branch flow into the area. To the south, Shoal River and Ward Mill Creek are shown. To the east, Long Creek and Pennywinkle Bay are located. The watershed is divided into several sections, with specific locations marked by blue circles and labeled: 21FLPNS G4NW0350, 21FLPNS G4NW0351, 21FLPNS 33040035, and 21FLPNS G4NW0349. The map also shows surrounding areas, including 35B to the east and 268 to the southwest. Various roads and other geographical features are also depicted.

Boat Ramp

A scale bar with markings at 0, 0.25, 0.5, 0.75, and 1 mile. The bar is divided into four equal segments, each representing 0.25 miles.

- Water Quality and Biology
- Biology Only
- Water Quality Only
- Non ROC Station

