

MEAN LOW WATER

MEAN SEA LEVEL

PROPOSED GROIN STRUCTURES

An aerial photograph of a coastal area, likely a wetland or marsh. A prominent red diagonal line runs from the upper left towards the lower right, indicating a boundary. The text "PROPOSED MEAN HIGH WATER" is written in red, capital letters, following the path of the line. The terrain is a mix of green, brown, and grey, representing different land and water features.

|                    |                                                                     |  |                           |               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |        |          |      |        |          |      |
|--------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|--|---------------------------|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|----------|------|--------|----------|------|
| SHEET NO.1 | GEORGE CRADY FISHING PIER STATE PARK                                |  | PROFESSIONAL REGISTRATION | DESIGNER :    | ISSUE DATE: 10/08/2011                                                                                                                                                                                                      | SYMBOL | REVISION | DATE | SYMBOL | REVISION | DATE |
|                    | SHEET TITLE                                                         |  |                           | DRAWN BY: MAP | COMP. FILE No.:                                                                                                                                                                                                             | A      |          |      | C      |          |      |
|                    | PROJECT TITLESAWPIT ISLANDTERRAPIN LIVING SHORELINE |  |                           | REVIEWED BY:  | STATE PROJECT No.:                                                                                                                                                                                                          | B      |          |      | D      |          |      |
|                    |                                                                     |  | Consultant :              |               | Department of Environmental ProtectionDivision of Recreation and ParksBureau of Natural and Cultural Resources3900 Commonwealth Blvd, MS# 530, Tallahassee, FL 32399 (850) 245-3104 |        |          |      |        |          |      |