

Salinity Network Workgroup: Florida Water Resources Monitoring Council – November 14 Meeting

Meeting Agenda

When: 14 November, 2018; (Wednesday) 1:00-3:00 PM

Where: GoToMeeting

<https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/787102557>

You can also dial in using your phone.

United States: +1 \(571\) 317-3129

Access Code: 787-102-557

Joining from a video-conferencing room or system?

Dial: 67.217.95.2##787102557

Cisco devices: 787102557@67.217.95.2

Meeting Objectives

- Establish new leadership for the workgroup
- Consider options for workgroup efforts related to groundwater quality indices and estuarine monitoring

Water Council Mission

To protect, preserve, manage and restore Florida's water resources by coordinating water resource monitoring among all levels of government, improving data quality and effectiveness, and sharing information widely.

Agenda

- Roll Call and Introduction:
- Status of Coastal Salinity Monitoring Network:
- Status of Water Level - Salinity Analysis Mapper:

Dan Dourte

Rick Copeland

Rick Copeland

- Status of GWL Percentile Ranking Index, including the loading of GWL data into WIN: Dan Dourte
- Possible Revisions of GW Sampling protocols: Rick Copeland
- Salinity GW Quality Index
 - Re-introduction of Proposal for a three-level index: Rick Copeland
 - Alternate Proposal of a Salinity GW Quality Index: Debra Harrington
- Possible development of a Statewide Estuarine Monitoring Network: Chris Sedlacek
- Suggestions for new Chairperson of the Salinity Network Workgroup: Dan Dourte