

Submerged aquatic vegetation map prepared by the South Florida Water Management District showing Vallisneria americana historic distribution and density in the Caloosahatchee River estuary.